Selectmen's Meeting

BOND SALE AUTHORIZED

Mr. William Quinlan of the Harbor National Bank brought the F.H.A. Bond issue which will finance the town's share of sewer construction to the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen for their authorization and signatures. The Board voted to authorize the issue in the amount of $500,000 at a 5% interest rate. The repayment will begin June 1st, 1980 and continue to June 1st, 1999.

CABLE TV

Selectmen discussed the Cable TV outline at length with Town Counsel Donald Fleming who had given the proposal a detailed study. Attorney James Huntoon, representing Upper Cape Cablevision, Inc., was present. Town Counsel Fleming suggested that the town might be better protected with a bond in the amount of $500,000 rather than one of $5,000. He questioned whether a 15 year license should be granted rather than one for a lesser time and said that the presentation did not contain a financial statement of the sole owner of the firm, Mr. Charles N. Decas. Hun-toon said that the Upper Cape system is based on a 3 town installation. The Marion-Mattapoisett installation is estimated at $700,000.00. This substantial investment makes the 15 year license a necessity because it must be recovered over a period of years. He said that he would immediately produce a financial statement from Mr. Decas to enclose in the other material. He questioned the necessity of the large bonding because he said that the cables in Mattapoisett will be installed on existing poles under supervision of the telephone and electric companies as well as fire alarm system supervisor. He could foresee no possible loss or liability to the town under these conditions. He asked that a speedy decision be rendered because Marion is about to open streets for repair and underground cable should be installed at that time. He said that the system is dependent upon a multitown participation. Huntoon estimated a one year installation period.

FINANCE COMMITTEE POST OPEN

Selectmen invited application to the seat on the Finance Committee left open by the resignation of Mr. Richard Young. They request that application be made in

SHORT TERM INVESTMENT

Treasurer Allen Sherman has invested $600,000.00 of Mattapoissett funds in 30-day period certificates of deposits at the rate of 9 1/2% per annum. $500,000. was placed with the United States Trust Company and $100,000. with the Harbor National Bank of Boston.

CLAM BEDS CLOSED

Selectmen approved a request of Al Pauline to close the waters of Mattapoissett to the taking of softshell clams. Pauline said that most of the clams are not of legal size and he wants to preserve the seed so that the beds will yield a good harvest when the clams are of a size for taking.

AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

A call for a special meeting of our customers has been made by forty-eight recent depositors.

The Special Meeting, which the Board of Directors is required to hold, under the By-Laws, will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, June 9, 1979, at the Holiday Inn on Hathaway Road, New Bedford.

The meeting was requested to amend the By-Laws of the Bank as follows:

1 - That the nomination and election days be changed from a Friday to a Saturday.

The Board of Directors has unanimously voted to approve this proposal. Your YES vote is recommended, to increase the participation of members in the affairs of their co-operative bank by making it more convenient for working people to attend bank meetings.

2 - That the Board of Directors be increased from 12 to 15 members.

The Board of Directors has unanimously voted to oppose this change. Your NO vote is recommended, because seven of the 12 Directors -- a majority -- have been elected to the board in the last three years, and because the makeup of the board already adequately reflects the geographic and ethnic community.

The Board of Directors, Officers and Staff of the Bank urge you to exercise your right by attending and voting at the Special Meeting on June 9, 1979.

Sports Meeting

There will be a Sports and Athletic Committee meeting on Thursday, June 7th, at 7:30 P.M. in the Mattapoisett Town Hall. There have been some problems in developing a Pony League Baseball program because of the high entry fee costs that were imposed on the Mattapoisett teams this year by the Fairhaven league. In order to enter the league this year, it would have cost $200.00 per team, the cost of individual insurance for each boy and an additional $1.00 for each time an umpire from the league had to umpire in Mattapoisett. These costs seemed totally unreasonable, particularly in view of the fact that no prior notice of these fees were sent to the committee.

The Committee would like to receive suggestions from interested parties as to what course of action should be followed for the summer. The meeting will be held for that purpose and to discuss any other issues pertaining to local programs that are underway at the present time. If you

CALIFORNIA STORM STAIN

SOLID COLOR STAINS — Linseed Oil or Urethane Latex

- Rich natural tones blend the color and grain of the wood but do not obscure the texture.
- Maximum hiding power in the water repellant finish.
- Cover previously stained surfaces.
- One coat for similar colors or two coats for contrasting colors.
- Deep color penetration — Helps avoid deterioration of wood.
- Mildew resistant and blister resistant on properly prepared surfaces.

SEMI-TRANSPARENT STAINS — Linseed Oil or Urethane Latex

- Natural appearance and texture allows wood to retain its natural beauty without detracting from the bold graining and configurations inherent in wood itself.
- Colors that blend with natural settings and other finishes.
- Penetrating finish helps protect against deterioration of wood.
- Weather gracefully without chipping and peeling.
- Performs better than solid color stains on decks, rails and outdoor furniture.
- Water repellant finish fully protects the natural mellowness of wood from the ravages of changing weather patterns.

BLEACHING STAIN — Transparent Oil Stain

- A natural transparent oil rich stain that quickly produces a uniform silvery gray antique appearance when exposed to natural weathering.
- Designed for use on unfinished wood only and is not recommended for use over painted, stained or sealed surfaces.
- Excellent longevity without blistering or peeling. Retains its natural weathered look throughout the years.

FIELD WALK - JUNE 9

THE SALTMARSH. The morning field walk this Saturday, June 9th, will explore the unique and specialized communities that exist in our local bays and estuaries, centered around the Saltmarsh habitat. Animals and plants that live in the saltmarsh have to adapt to extreme conditions. The entire community is underwater part of the time and fully exposed to the wind and cold the rest of the time. In order to survive and grow in this environment, the inhabitants have developed many strange and fascinating adaptations.

Join the field walk this Saturday and discover the beauty of the saltmarshes that lie along our coast. They are an important resource for all.

liant performance comes from Marcelle Gauvin as the poetess Emily Dickinson. Hers is a world of poetry, romance, laughter and eccentricity. Other characters are vividly re-created by Miss Gauvin such as her Father, brother Austin, sister Lavinia, teachers, lovers, etc. It is a tour de force for which Miss Gauvin received a standing ovation opening night.

The entire life of Miss Dickinson is relived memory style. There is a folksy "Our Town" quality in William Luce's script. Young folks will delight in Miss Dickinson's relationships with cats and birds. Older folks will find truth in the family situation revealed. Need I convince you that this is a play that will please and enrich all ages?

George W. Hayden again proves his meticulousness as a director. It both excites and informs. The poems are embroidered in the narrative context. Pauline Hathaway's lavish set is lovely and in period (1840-1886). Frank Tonge's lighting adds a tonal sense to the passing of history and time. The bridal white costume by Ruth is suitable for the occasion.

"The Belle of Amherst" at Gateway Players is an excellent show worth the whole family's attention. Bring a handkerchief or two. Performance dates: June 8, 9, 15,

Diocesan Anniversary

An enthusiastic committee is finalizing details for the New Bedford Area's celebration of the Fall River Diocesan Jubilee Anniversary. It is to be held on Saturday, June 9th. This is the first of the area celebrations to be held throughout the diocese this year.

The Fall River Diocese, founded by His Holiness, Pope Saint Pius X, was separated from the Diocese of Providence on March 12, 1904. The very motto of its founder, "To Restore All Things in Christ", was chosen as the goal of Jubilee 75.

Of particular interest to the New Bedford area is the fact that the first Catholic parish established in what is now the Fall River Diocese was located on the corner of Orchard and Allen Streets in New Bedford and is now known as the Church of St. Lawrence, Martyr, located on County Street. St. Lawrence's parish is this year celebrating its 159th anniversary.

BIG BROTHER/SISTER PROGRAM

The Big Brother/Sister Program of New Bedford Child and Family Service will be celebrating its 6th annual Big Brother-Sister Week June 10-16. It is also the 75th anniversary of the Big Brother concept.

The purpose of the week is twofold:

1) To give a measure of recognition to those volunteers (Big Brothers and Sisters) who have helped a child throughout the year without much fanfare; 2) To recruit new volunteers to match with the growing number of children waiting.

There are presently 87 Big Brothers and Sisters matched in the New Bedford area. However, there are 100 children waiting for their own Big Brother or Sister.

More volunteers are needed. All that is required is to see the child you are matched with at least two hours a week. It isn't necessary to be married, or to have children of your own.

Call 996-8572 for more information.

I found the last pilot just about as stupid as the others. He ordered the ship to anchor, ship going as fast as tug could tow her. I remonstrated, telling him the cable would part unless ship's headway was checked. The result was as I anticipated; cable parted, lost anchor and chain. We finally reached Antwerp with two anchors minus stocks; fitted temporary stocks, etc.

Before cargo was discharged Guano charters were in market L4.10. Went to London, chartered ship to leave for Callao not later than May 15th. There were no dry docks at that time to receive large vessels. Was obliged to heave down both sides. It did look almost impossible to get away at the appointed time. All my friends declared, "Hadley, you will be found wanting." I was hopeful and determined to do my best. On the day appointed we passed out through the dock gates, my friends on the pier wishing me "Bon voyage". My voyage commenced, I had complied with the charter. By so doing I had saved my freight, value $51,000. Wind and other circumstances combined in our favor. We finished our repairs in the river and in about two weeks proceeded, arriving in Callao August 28, 1862, 86 days passage. Kind fortune had been with me. I arrived before many of those who went to sea on the 15th. It was on this, my last voyage to the Chinchas, I again met my friends Capt. and Mrs. Candage of Ship Electric Spark. Mrs. Hadley was not with me. I remember of going with some of the ladies in the fleet several times to gather mosses, have in my possession a very pretty collection. They gave me, at the same time, a U.S. warship; was at the Islands. All of the fleet that could go were invited to make an excursion on her to Pisco. Returned to Callao. ders to London. In going out under charge of pilot struck a rock. Put back to Queens-town; discharged cargo; made repairs; sold the ship to go under English flag. Mrs. Hadley had been living in Antwerp; was awaiting me then. Took passage on Bristol packet en route for Antwerp. My ears were wide open for news, especially when my war news came up. I found about fifteen passengers on the boat. Everybody seemed to be in sympathy with the South; evidently did not think me an American, from the manner in which they discussed our national affairs. At dinner the ball opened. Two young bloods on my left made the assertion that the people of the South were so much superior to those of the North. I couldn't stand that! and asked if they would please inform me in what respect. "Education." I think I might have been a little fast, when I replied that there was more education in the state of Massachusetts than all the cotton states. They replied, perhaps generally, but not individually. Would they give me an example? They weren't very well posted, so I said "You are evidently discussing a matter you know little about." They began to smell a rat. Farther down the table the conversation still went on about the war. I listened but couldn't keep still long. After a while I remarked I did not think any nation ever raised so large and efficient army under the circumstances in so short a time. They said "You pay them so well." "True, we pay everybody in the United States

I replied that "these people whom you wish to destroy only a few weeks before had sent two ships loaded with provisions to feed your suffering poor as a present." I thought that "doing good for evil". The old fellow jumped up, "You have done nobly". And I retired. On my return from Antwerp with Mrs. Hadley, I met the same old clergyman. He was very chatty and we were the best of friends. From Queenstown I went to Liverpool and London to settle up ship's accounts. One day going by rail to visit a friend at Booth near Liverpool found myself in a carriage with two English gentlemen. It was just after the battle of Gettysburg. One said, "I cannot understand those Americans. A few days ago Lee was invading the North, expecting soon to be in Washington. I had 140,000 to invest. I put it into confederate bonds. Now Lee is driven back across the Potomac." The other gentleman made the remark, "I had a friend whom I advised to do the same thing." I kept si-

Crossing the Flags one day where the merchants meet, I met Mr. Stephen Guion, whom I had known for many years, a most honorable upright man. With him were several gentlemen, who I knew were in sympathy with the South. Jokingly I said, "Mr. Guion, I'm going home. Want a ticket for New York. Haven't any money, but my satchel is full of Confederate bonds." "Well," Mr. Guion said, "I might take them in part payment." You can imagine the faces of those who stood by.

Took passage at Liverpool on Steamer for Boston, the same captain commanding that I had made the passage with four years before when I went to take charge of the Rock Light, and same who had towed my ship from Marseilles to Sebastopol during the Crimean war.

ATTENTION VIETNAM VETERANS

If you are a Vietnam veteran planning to enroll in or return to school under the GI Bill, the Veterans' Administration has a useful check list to help keep those VA education benefits coming regularly:

- * Double check your choice of courses to be certain they will count toward your educational objective.
- * Register early. VA and your school need time to process your registration so that GI Bill checks can be started your way promptly.
- * Avoid dropping classes after registration.
- * File for your GI Bill benefits as early as possible.
- * If you have to interrupt your education, notify VA promptly and advise the date you expect to return to classes.
- * If you change addresses, notify VA promptly, and the school that you are attending.
- * Submit transcripts to the college admissions and records office immediately after application is made. This will speed

MARION PROFESSOR APPOINTED

It has been announced by the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Science at Stanford University that Lewis P. Lipsitt, professor of psychology and medical science at Brown University, has been appointed as a Fellow at the Stanford Center for the next academic year. Dr. Lipsitt, who is also director of the Child Study Center at Brown, will be on sabbatical leave from Brown and will live in Palo Alto, California during that period.

Dr. Lipsitt will be engaged in studies of the neurophysiology of infancy, with the purpose of relating behavioral transitions of the first year of life to neural changes occurring during that time. Professor Lipsitt is an authority on behavioral deficiencies and developmental crises of the first year of life, such as crib death and the failure-to-thrive syndrome.

Lipsitt has recently completed an article for the American Psychological Association on problems of children in the first year of life. The article will appear in a special journal honoring the International Year of the Child, in connection with which Dr. Lipsitt was invited to speak in Athens, Greece last summer and will lecture in Israel next July.

Professor Lipsitt has been on the faculty of Brown University for 22 years. He took his undergraduate degree at the University of Chicago, did his master's level work at the University of Massachusetts, and received his Ph.D. at the University of Iowa. He was in the U.S. Air Force as a clinical psychologist from 1952 to 1954.

In 1963 Dr. Lipsitt was the founder of a serial publication, Advances in Child Development and Behavior, and remains its co-editor today. He has recently founded the only English-language journal on infancy, called Infant Behavior and Development, which is published at Brown University.

The son of Mrs. Anna P. Lipsitt and the late Attorney Joseph Lipsitt, Dr. Lipsitt grew up on South Street in Marion and attended the Sippican School and Tabor Academy. He and his family spend part of each summer in Marion.

it. The Lakeville Hospital Stop Smoking Program is designed to help smokers learn the self-control skills they need to break the habit.

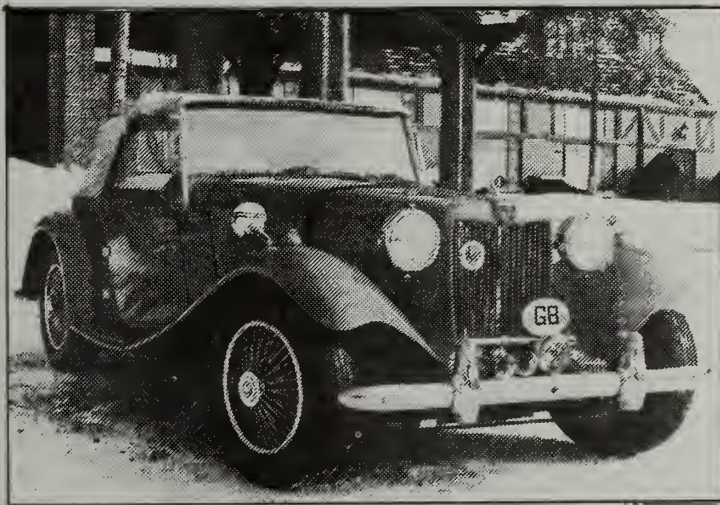

The groups are limited to a maximum of 15 people so that each participant will receive individual attention. The group leaders are health professionals, specially trained in group methods, Ms. Morrisette said. The Stop Smoking Program is a support group, not a therapy group.

During the first phase of the program participants learn more about their smoking habit and practice skills which help them cut down their smoking. The first two meetings give the group a chance to prepare for session 3, Quit Day, July 10, 1979.

In the second phase of the program, participants develop their own individual plans for staying off cigarettes. This is the most important phase of the program because although many smokers can easily quit, they sometimes slip into their old habits with time.

Ms. Morrisette urged anyone interested in participating in this program to call Anne Rogers or Fran MacAulay at 947-1231, Extension 201 for registration information. The deadline for registration is June 15.
